2014 Dedication

The 2014 St. Martin Yellowjacket yearbook is dedicated to a very special woman who always wanted to be a teacher. Even as a little girl, Ms Carrie White Shields would line up her dolls around her room and pretend that she was their teacher. While in school, her favorite subjects were always English and Creative Writing. The only thing that Ms. Shields loves more than her family, literature, books and writing is her students. Ms Shields has a knack for getting to know her students and making personal connections with them while at the same time doing an outstanding job of teaching them the in's and out's of English and instilling in them the love of reading and writing.

Ms Shields was born in Houston, Texas, but she has lived her entire life in Mississippi. She graduated from St. Martin High School in 1991. After working at Gayfer's and Keesler Federal Credit Union, she decided to pursue a college degree to fulfill her dream of becoming a teacher. She graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1999 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and she went on to obtain a master's degree in secondary education from William Carey University in 2004. Through extremely hard work and many sleepless nights, Ms Shields received her certification as a National Board Certified teacher in 2005. She has taught in the Jackson County School System for fourteen years.

Ms Shields has taught a great majority of St. Martin students over the years in one or more of the following classes: 7th grade Reading, World Literature, Oral Communications, Mythology, 9th, 10th, and 11th grade English, along with advanced 9th grade English.

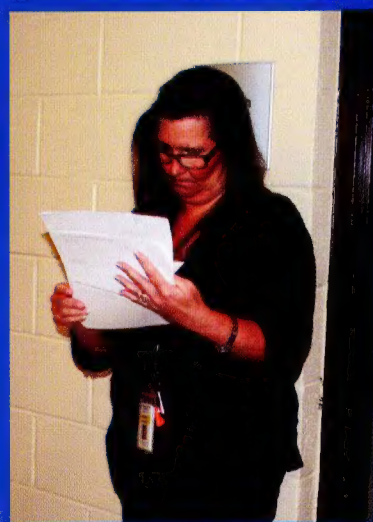

Some of Ms Shields other talents include her fantastic organizational skills, beautiful home decorating abilities and a life-long dedication to journaling and creative writing. Her hobbies and favorite pastimes when she is not reading or writing include watching movies and tv series (usually multiple seasons in a single sitting!), listening to music (especially Rob Thomas and Stevie Nicks), eating Mexican food, hanging out at Barnes and Noble and Starbucks, and spending time with her granddaughter, Emma. Her future hopes and dreams include travel and becoming a published author.

This year we honor Ms Shields for all of the above accomplishments, for her passion for teaching, but most of all for her undying love and devotion to every student who walks through her door.

When we're all sitting in fourth period waiting for the final bell to ring to return to our homes, other students on campus don't have the choice to go straight home because they have to go to work! These students work vigorous hours cooking food, cleaning the tables, washing the dishes, or doing other various jobs to receive their hard-earned paycheck.

"I've been attending this school for the past 6 years. I've learned the food isn't as bad as they say it is, the people aren't as bad as outsiders say they are, and it is difficult to find a friend as solid as a St. Martin Graduate." - Bret Massey

"I hope you future SMHS Yearbook Staff members put their heart into every page, full of little memories, for the future grads to enjoy just as I have. Best of Luck!" - Catherine Hasty (Philippians 3:14)

What a joy it is to have you here! You are the most beautiful girl I have ever known. We love you with all our hearts. We love you with all our hearts. We love you with all our hearts.

Check out our...

It began at St. Martin East in Malibu's Muffins and Buns
You, Godmother is upon us it's so hard to believe
You have worked very hard to get to this day
But, who knew you would have so much fun along the way?
There have been sleepovers, parties, and many long talks, just to name a few
And, who would have thought those days in Godmother's
You have filled our lives and each other's with so much joy and laughter
Many special memories have been made in those days
Now, as this chapter comes to an end, you are our 'Trading Ladies'
We are so proud of each of you and love you like crazy.

Alley Perkins

To our Alleybubble,

Do you know how much you mean to me?
As you grow into what you be.
You came from within, from just beneath my heart
It's there you'll always be, though your own life will now start.
You're growing so fast it sends me awirl
With misty eyes I ask, Where's my little girl?
I know sometimes to you I seem harsh and unfair,
But one day you will see, I taught you well because I care.
The next few years will so quickly fly,
With laughter and joy, mixed with a few tears to cry.
As you begin your growth to womanhood, this fact you must know,
You'll always be my source of pride, no matter where you go.
You must stand up tall and proud, within you feel no fear,
For all your dreams and goals, sit before you very near.
With God's love in your heart and the world by its tail,
You'll always be my winner, and victory will prevail.
For you this poem was written, with help from above,
To tell you in a rhythm of your Family's heartfelt Love!

Congratulations....We love you!

Cynthia,

It has been a privilege and honor to watch you grow up to become such an incredible person. We are so very proud of you. It is your time to fly and you have begun to open your wings. You shine in everything you do, but the thing you do best is being YOU! You light up the room, light up our lives, and now it's time to go and light up the world. Keep reaching for the stars because we know that you can be all you've ever dreamed. Remember that life is about the journey, not the destination. Do not follow the path that others have created before you, instead go where there is no path and leave a trail.

Love you to the moon and back;

Mere words can never fully express the love, joy, pride, and admiration we have for you. Watching you grow from a quiet reserved little boy into a stellar, lean, and may we add very handsome young man, has made us beam like the beautiful rays of the sun which in our eyes you represent. Your dedication to your studies is uncanny, you have set your goals high and with God guiding and directing your path we know you will achieve them all. As you leave the nest, we want you to know our love will follow you everywhere you go. It has been our honor to raise a son like you, so thoughtful and full of compassion, whose mind is like a sponge, always soaking up and taking in knowledge and wonders of life. We leave this thought with you to carry throughout your life: "Always reach for the moon, but, if you should fall, you will land among the stars..." We love you so very much.

We have loved watching you grow up, with all of your friends coming over and hanging out, all the sleepovers, the many trips we took with all the girls...you have made so many great memories and we are glad we got to be a part of all of them with you. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments, you amaze us with all the things you have done and are planning to do. Where have the years gone? It seems only yesterday you were holding on, oh so tight, as we walked to class on that first day of school. Now graduation is upon us and that hold is not quite as tight as you begin to take flight. We are so very blessed to have watched you grow into such a beautiful young woman, and it continues to be our privilege to be your parents and brother. You have brought so much happiness and laughter into our lives and pure joy into our hearts. We are so proud for you and all of your accomplishments throughout your days at St. Martin, but most proud of the person you have become.

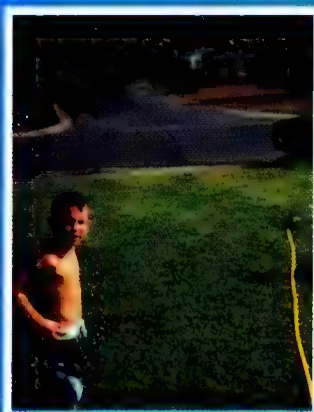

While we are sad that this chapter of your life is coming to an end, we are so very excited to see where your next chapter takes you. We admire your strength and determination; it will help you write many wonderful chapters yet to come. Keep your heart open to new possibilities and seize every opportunity. Reach for the stars and follow your dreams. Approach each new day with hope and compassion, and continue to strive to be the best person that you can be. Remember to be true to yourself and your faith. And, always, always remember to laugh (and keep making all those wonderful faces)!

Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to. We are and will always be with you to celebrate your many, many successes and to lift you up in times of need. May God continue to bless you and be with you always.

We love you always, Princess

From the first day of kindergarten, when you informed us you were not going back to school, until now, we have watched you change from a generous, caring little boy into an intelligent, honest, courageous young man. Life hasn't always been easy but without struggles you would never know how strong you really are. I pray you always keep your faith in God and remember that the right thing to do is always the right thing to do, no matter if you are alone or with a group of people. Use your courage to stand up strong for what you believe in. We are proud of your desire to help others and your sense of adventure. Nothing can hold you back, so dream it, prepare for it, and achieve it. We love you and want only the best for you. Can't wait to see what the world has in store for you. Focus and conquer.

From the moment you blessed my life, you have filled a hole in my heart that I never knew was there. You have brought such joy to my life. I have watched you grow from a curious little girl into a beautiful, strong woman that I could not be more proud of. I know you will accomplish great things in your life and anything you set your mind to.

Love you my Sweetpea,
Mom

Seniors,
Congratulations Class of 2014! We finally made it. Our Senior year has finally come to an end. We have made memories that we will cherish for the rest of our lives. I am glad I have had this opportunity to be this year's Yearbook Editor and make such an unforgettable yearbook. These last few weeks of us all being together has made graduation more real and bittersweet. I wish each and every one of you the best of luck with your future.

Best Wishes,
Kelsey McGrevey
